

AFAANZ Qualitative Research in Accounting Network (QualRAN)
Special Interest Group

Inaugural QualRAN Symposium

*9am -1pm, Sunday 5 July 2009
Adelaide Australia*

Programme

- 9.00am - 9.15am* Review of past year and election of officers
- 9.15am - 10.30am* Panel-led discussion on different theories/methods of doing qualitative research
Professor Robert Chenhall, Monash University
Professor Kerry Jacobs, The Australian National University
Professor Anne Lillis, Melbourne University
Professor Markus Milne, Canterbury University
- 10.30am -11.00am* Morning Tea
- 11.00am - 11.45am* Professor Stewart Lawrence, University of Waikato, "Hermeneutics and its application to a study of community involvement in business decision making: the case of Lake Taupo"
- 11.45am - 12.30pm* Professor Lee Parker, The University of South Australia, "Experiencing Qualitative Inquiry"
- 12.30pm - 1.00pm* Wrap up and Future Directions for QualRAN

Attendance at the Symposium is free to participants of the 2009 AFAANZ conference. However, please register your attendance at the Symposium when completing your AFAANZ Conference registration.

For more information on QualRAN please visit our web site or email Ralph Kober.

Web site: <http://www.buseco.monash.edu.au/aaf/special-interest-group/qualran/index.html>

Email: Ralph.Kober@buseco.monash.edu.au