Seminar as Part of the 2011 Events in Honour of Emeritus Prof. Joe Isaac AO, FASSA

Employment and Work:

The Australian Worker Representation and Participation Surveys

Dr Brian Cooper, Associate Prof. Peter Holland, Dr Amanda Pyman & Prof. Julian Teicher*

All speakers belong to the Australian Centre for Research in Employment and Work (ACREW) Department of Management, Faculty of Business and Economics, Monash University, Caulfield

* On secondment to RMIT International University Vietnam

Discussants: Prof. William Brown CBE, Master of Darwin College, Cambridge University
Emeritus Prof. Russell Lansbury AM, FASSA, Sydney University

Date & Time: Monday 4 April 2011; 12:30pm-13.45 (including a light lunch)
Venue: Basement room 39, Building H, 878 Dandenong Rd [corner of Queens Ave.]
Monash University, Caulfield East, Melbourne.

RSVP by 31/3/11: by email: michelle.kinniburgh@monash.edu (ph. 03 9903 2450)

This seminar is co-hosted by ACREW and Centre for Human Resource Management, Department of Marketing and Management, Faculty of Business and Economics, University of Melbourne.

After the seminar at 14.00hrs is the 2011 Joe Isaac Symposium (Keynote Speaker: Prof Willy Brown, Cambridge) also in Building H, but in room 1.16. All seminar participants are invited to attend the Symposium. To register for it and for more information, go to: www.buseco.monash.edu.au/events/isaac

Travelling to Caulfield campus: Entry to the campus car park is from Princes Avenue. Ticket machine parking ranging from one to five hours is also available in surrounding streets. For many other transport options and a Campus Map go to: www.monash.edu.au/campuses/caulfield.html

Version 23/03/11 gjb