

Environmental Sustainability Conference program

Tuesday 24 March, 8.30 am – 4.30 pm
Clayton campus

www.monash.edu/sustainabilitymatters

Gold sponsors

Environmental Sustainability Conference program

Tuesday 24 March 2009, 8.30 am – 4.30 pm, Clayton campus

Banquet room, first floor, Campus Centre
8.30–9 am	Registration
9–9.10 am	Welcome Paul Barton, Director, Office of Environmental Sustainability
9.10–9.20 am	Opening address Professor Richard Larkins AO, Vice-Chancellor
9.20–10 am	Social, economic and environmental issues Tim Costello, CEO, World Vision Australia
10–10.30 am	Leading the way in sustainability – initiating and implementing environmental ideas Jon Dee, Planet Ark

Morning tea and trade exhibition, 10.30–11 am

Banquet room, first floor, Campus Centre
11–11.30 am	Fostering industry/economic growth and the triple bottom line Aaron Wood, 2007 Environmentalist of the Year
11.30 am – 12 pm	Climate Code Red: the case for emergency action David Spratt, co-author of Climate code red: the case for emergency action

Lunch and trade exhibition, 12 noon – 1 pm

12.30–1.30 pm	Concert by Rosie Burgess Set, front lawn, Campus Centre
---------------	--

Cellar rooms, ground floor, Campus Centre
Conversation cafés: The way forward
1.30–2.30 pm	1. How can Melbourne best meet its water needs? Facilitator: Dr Tim Fletcher, Institute for Sustainable Water Resources	2. Does Victoria have the right strategies to reduce energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions? Facilitator: Jason Gerrard, Director, GerrardBown
	3. Leading the way with Green IT Facilitator: Margot Hellyer, Client Services, Information Technology Services and Manjari Mehta, Manager, IT Advisory Risk Advisory Services, KPMG	4. What role does Monash and others in the university sector play in engaging students in sustainability? Facilitator: Dr Sharron Pfueller, School of Geography and Environmental Science
	5. Transport: What will drive Victorians to become more sustainable in their transport choices? Facilitator: Associate Professor Geoff Rose, Institute of Transport Studies

Afternoon tea and trade exhibition, 2.30–2.50 pm

Banquet room, first floor, Campus Centre
2.50–4.15 pm	Debate – Conservation will always win out over technology for reduction of greenhouse gas emissions Facilitator: George Negus, Presenter, Dateline
	VS
	<table border="0" style="width: 100%;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%;"> Jeff McLean Faculty of Business and Economics Dr Sean Shiels EPA Meredith Prior Monash Association of Debaters </td> <td style="width: 50%;"> Gareth Forde Faculty of Engineering Kerry Pratt Monash Sustainability Institute Colette Mintz Monash Association of Debaters </td> </tr> </table>	Jeff McLean Faculty of Business and Economics Dr Sean Shiels EPA Meredith Prior Monash Association of Debaters	Gareth Forde Faculty of Engineering Kerry Pratt Monash Sustainability Institute Colette Mintz Monash Association of Debaters
Jeff McLean Faculty of Business and Economics Dr Sean Shiels EPA Meredith Prior Monash Association of Debaters	Gareth Forde Faculty of Engineering Kerry Pratt Monash Sustainability Institute Colette Mintz Monash Association of Debaters
4.15–4.30 pm	The way forward Paul Barton, Director, Office of Environmental Sustainability

Silver sponsors

TOSHIBA
Leading Innovation >>>

