Notes

This degree is recognised as meeting academic requirements for membership by Australian Institute of Risk Management (AIRM). For all professional bodies, membership is dependent upon the correct choice of units by students.

~IND2903 Physical risk treatment will be offered as AFF2903 Physical risk treatment from 2007 onwards. Students will course complete with either of these two codes.

^This is a recommended course progression. It may be varied, however all prerequisite requirements must be met. Before changing your progression, first check the prerequisite requirements for all of your subjects and seek advice from the faculty office.
